Sometimes I can't seem to find the words to explain exactly how I feel 'cause it's deep real deep and I just hope that you can see how deep it is by listening to this song

Now let me open up my heart and let you read just what I wrote when you had took those final steps of death and left my heart broken in two but you had to damn I wish that I can have a talk with the eternal man
I wish that you was with me right now holdin' my hand
I feel I can't go on and don't nobody understand it makes me wonder why and if I have to die why is this my biggest fear I can only look above and just let heaven wipe my tears

Chorus:
'Carus if I'm losing you and if I'm losing you to whom will I confide and who will hear my cry
and if I'm losing you
then will you see me through through the day
through the night
though you're gone will you stay by my side

I just wanna talk to the Lord my father thanks for blessing me when the others didn't bother life goes on gotta stay strong I'da done some wrong but I'da done some right too cried some lonely nights too and in my heart nobody knows the pain a chance to hide it holding back my tears a chance to fight it but it's building up inside of me this heavy load help me Lord before I explode please take my soul

See I don't know if I could say goodbye to yesterday
'cause when you leave and go to heaven it's so far away and I can't even stop to think to wipe my tears away but maybe he thought it was best for you to come and stay what can I say just keep your peoples close to you so you can cherish every memory that stood through and stood true so if you meet that crossroad then you can say that you opened up your heart and just let heaven wipe your tears away

And if I close my eyes at night will I see you in heaven and if the Lord takes my life I hope I see you in heaven just wipe your tears away before today and when he comes be prepared for a brighter day take me away (x2)

(Choir) I'm losing you
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh yeah
And if there's a way for you to stay stay in my life oooh forever I'm losing you

And I just hope that you saw how deep it was by listening to this song
