See it was one of them days (yeah) like wakin up in stormy weather in your mind thinkin oohh htis could be so much better (i'm tellin ya'll) i'll never forget her black leather down for whatever my nigga's sweatin me so we sittin in this club where the ladies rub-a-dub they solicitin there love me and my man about as tight as you can get so he admitted that he wanted to hit it i said now wait a minute i can contest to bein bout as open-minded as it gets when it comes to sex cuz i believe in time and space what a waste if you can't really have your time and space so what was the use?
but to swallow my pride to love and let loose of this feelin inside
said f you want it that bad then you should have it and then he smiled and said i want you to grab it

[Chorus]

True confessions of a broken heart
i learned my lesson now i'm torn apart everybody's got a story about how they lost their one and only

I'm on a hunt to get my nigga what he wants from back to front of the club she's tryin to pull a stunt even though they got the lights down low i can see the whole dance floor she must have slipped out the back door rather than goin back empty handed i know this ain't the way he planned it i do as if commanded hmm let's see who the next be the finest who the next be the best for sex and messin with his highness so i took another look and guess who's back i'm off the hook it's the lady in the black excuse me miss see that man sittin at the table he wants to know if you're ready, willin, and able so she followed me and obviously my man is gonna want a little privacy but i was wrong he turned it up another notch asked if she went tongue to crotch and said he wants to watch

So now i'm thinkin what have i done and gotten into?
maybe this will be strong and monumental as i look in her eyes what is she gonna say?
never thought i'd be in dismay when i woke up today she said her thing ain't girls we in three different worlds
so he mentioned instead that he wanted some head she obliged no menage then fled we were straight for bout a month until pure lusts were the topics we discussed though i didn't mind he wants it all the time moer women and all i've been in spreadin venom and still wanna be mine so i told him one day can't do it anymore he reacts so relaxed said he's done with them for sure then i caught him one weekend cheatin and creepin duct's leakin don't speak i'll be leavin

[Chorus]
