Main street's empty in the evening chill
From courthouse tower to griffin mill Small signs of winter come creeping down the hills

I saw your shadow on Jackson St.
Where the zombie-eyed kids and the speed-queens meet It's been a long time running thorough my veins this long lost dream

And I tear it apart and burn it all down 'couse I have to God gave me permission to do what it takes to find you

All the friends I betrayed all the enemies made in the process
We've all done the same we're just carrying different crosses
I'm feeling no pain baby - it's acceptable losses

This place got dark in the year's that passed
The store-fronts blown I guess nothing lasts
The fighting at the bars still draw wired vengeful crowds

I fallowed our trail down to Rosewood Park
As the shadows grow tall and the stars come out Were the backseat lovers used to park their daddy's car

And I tear it apart and burn it all down 'couse I have to Made a deal with a man at the crossroads who knew where to find you

All the friends I betrayed all the enemies made in the
process
Our pain feels the same we're just carrying different
crosses
It's all in the game baby - it's acceptable losses

They found your car own at Suicide Brigde Where the Johnson twins became newsflash kids

But I know you so much better don't believe you'd call it quits

Now I got an old address and I'm waiting there In the first light of morning at the fire stairs
I can hear someone's soming and suddenly I'm scared

Couse you ripped me appart and I ran for my life couse I had to My heart won't stop bleeding and I'm no longer sure if I want it to

All the friends I betrayed all the enemies made in the
process
They're all going down in a accounts of acceptable losses
It's all in the game baby - it's acceptable losses
