Saw your gentle little hand, you look so comfortable 5 to 5 is not good enough for you, nor for me, it's like A vision clear to see
I was in love the day you whispered - hello Run, run away, I think the dark will make you see it's not so easy

Murphy, I adored you, I did bore you before you tossed your heart away
Murphy, I adored you, I did bore you, before you lost your glow
I, I did love you, I deserved you, but even friendship passed away
Why did you go back without saying goodbye

Without saying goodbye...

I saw the stars you were tangeled in, it didn't look so comfortable... no, no
But you, you laughed so hard and I cried out your name
Please tell me what to do... you, you

Your hair was in your face and I wanted to embrace my baby-girl
But how can I now tell you, even smell you, when you're up there alone
