Lonely but not alone
These city lights can not make this home
And it's too damn cold tonight
And I forget all the reasons why I try

To hold you close to me
You're the only ghost I see
And I want you so bad tonight
So I'll give into the longing the last time

Don't show me mercy
Because I can't win this fight
With you on my side
Don't say I'm worth it
To keep me up at night
When you don't even know the price

Your green eyes make me blue
How am I to run from you
And do you pull me in afraid to let me go
I can see the light
Your perfect lips won't win tonight
Like they always do
Your green eyes make me blue

I wish I could believe your lies
They're the same ones that I tried
I wish I could cut all ties
You go your way and I'll go mine

Get the hell out of this place

Before you say my name
Send my heart back up in flames
I'll never make it to the fire escape

Your green eyes make me blue
How am I to run from you
And do you pull me in afraid to let me go
I can see the light
Your perfect lips won't win tonight
Like they always do

Your green eyes make me blue

Don't show me mercy
Because I can't win this fight
With you on my side
Don't say I'm worth it
Just keep me up at night
When you don't even know the price

Your green eyes make me blue
How am I to run from you
And do you hang me this high just to watch me fall
I can see the light
Your perfect lips won't win tonight
Like they always do

Your green eyes make me blue.
