Oh my little bird what have you done?
Fell in love with Mr. Setting Sun
So beautiful you made the sky your own
Then it disappeared left you alone

You sang your song, you searched the blackest sky
You searched the stars, you lost your will to fly
And then the rain came pouring from a cloud
You begged the wind for mercy blow out loud

Can you hear it, can you hear it tonight
Can you hear it, can hear it tonight
I know you fearing, I am here with you tonight

The wind was moving far, was coming closer
The clouds was turning raindrops in to sleep
See this white light, baby please, shadow's leaving with no names
Burning with a fever I can feel
You burning with a fever that is real

Can you hear it, can you hear it tonight
Can you hear it, can hear it tonight
I know you fearing, I am here with you tonight

Little bird you came a bit to close
(I am here with you)
It's hard to reach the one you love the most
(I am here with you)
And there's a part of you in everyone
(I am here with you)
Towards the setting sun

I can feel it, I know you feel it to You're stuck with me, cause I believe in you
You got it, I got this fever to You're secret me, might have sees the sea

(Oh my little bird what have you done?
Fell in love with Mr. Setting Sun)
(X2)
