I wanna look in your direction
Don't wanna see you through
I wanna get a re-connection
Don't wanna comfort you
It is not about time, babe
It is all about now
So let me see your locomotion
And show me how
You wanna live for tomorrow
You've got to live today

When the morning comes, it's all the same
And we're not to blame

Lover
Tonight is the night
There's no other
We're gonna live for each other
Tonight is the night we'll discover
That we only need one another
Tonight is the night we're above her
We only need to discover
That we've got to care for each other
So come on, come on now

You've got your favorite collection
You've got a fancy car (you play it hard like a star)
You see, it's not about perfection
It's just the way you are (so fine)
If you walk on the safe side
You better change your shoes
Don't deny it, 'cause it's time to choose
You've got to win or lose

Lover
Tonight is the night
There's no other
We're gonna live for each other
Tonight is the night we'll discover
That we only need one another
Tonight is the night we're above her

We only need to discover
That we've got to care for each other
So come on, come on now

You're standing in the shade, babe
You've got to come on through
Get on, get it on
You know what to do
You're standing in the shade, babe
You've got to come on through
When the morning comes, it's all up to you
You've got to come on through

Lover
Tonight is the night
There's no other
We're gonna live for each other
Tonight is the night we'll discover
That we only need one another
Tonight is the night we're above her
We only need to discover
That we've got to care for each other
So come on, come on now
