Darkness is shutting me in
This is my heart and my mind, I know I haven't sinned
But everything turns to grey, no black nor white
I know I have to stay

But when he's holding me in his arms, I see all of his charm
Beauty hits me, a strike of lightning of fear
No one can lie... no one can die

You're ready for the fall you are, ready for the fall

My treasure is blinding my eyes
The golden chains around my arms, I know this isn't wise
But tell me again what to do,
Lucky is the one who'll be touched by you

But when he's holding me in his arms, I see all of his
charm
Beauty hits me, a strike of lightning of fear
No one can lie... no one can die
