Sad eyed lady, silent sky
Don't say maybe, don't you lie
Every time I trip and fall, you smile
Every time I need that drink, you hold my hand for a while

My sister, dear sister... you make me cry
My sister, dear sister... do I dare to ask you why... oh
why?

I fought comfort, I fought you Sold my fortune, tell me what to do

Every time I trip and fall, you smile
Every time I need that drink, you hold my hand for a while

why?
