Hello, are you there?
Do you see me through your window pane?
Hello, are you there?
Well this silence, you're so very strange.
And I, well I've been trying,
so hard to get you off my mind.
And I, well I've been trying,
but a friend is so rare to find.

Hello, been gone,
But these thoughts of you just carry on.
Whisper words, to the edge of my petal darling,
with the things you said.
Oh, I, I've been trying,
so hard to get you off my mind.
And I, oh I've been trying,
but a friend is so rare to find.

Don't give up, don't give up
Don't give up, don't give up on me.
I've been trying, I've been trying
I've been trying to get you off my mind.

Don't give up, don't give up
Don't give up, don't give up on me.
I've been trying, I've been trying
I've been trying to get you off my mind, oh.

Oh I, I've been trying,
so hard to get you off my mind.
Crystal ball, spill your light,
oh I'll be hanging off you tonight.
And ambitious as I might,
for I'm still a fool for a tie that binds.
Correct me, if I'm right,
I cannot forget, when it comes tonight.
Don't give up, don't give up
Don't give up, don't give up on me.
I've been trying, I've been trying
I've been trying to get you off my mind.

Don't give up, don't give up

Don't give up, don't give up on me.
I've been trying, I've been trying
I've been trying to get you off my mind.

Don't give up, don't give up
Don't give up, don't give up on me.
I've been trying, I've been trying
I've been trying to get you off my mind.

Don't give up, no don't give up
Don't give up, don't give up on me.
I've been trying, I've been trying
Oh, I've been trying.

Don't give up, (don't give up)
(Don't give up), (don't give up on me).
(I've been trying), (I've been trying)
(I've been trying to get you off my mind).

(Don't give up), (don't give up)
(Don't give up), (don't give up on me).
(I've been trying), (I've been trying)
(I've been trying to get you off my mind).

Don't give up.
I've got to, oh, I've got to, to get you off my mind
You'll still be in the edge of my dreams.
