Here...I word you've just spoken
Falls soft as the summer rain
And now...we're out in the open
And we hope and dream the same
And hoping..Is only..The spark to..A flame
(True) true has no angle
No wed to untangle
When love turns out to be true
(True) you don't need a reason
It's easy believing
When love turns out to be true
Here... we're half way to heaven
We can almost see the gates
And here... there's love for the taking
And its clear now... you were worth the wait
But waiting... means nothing...when we know the way
(True) true has no angle
No wed to untangle
When love turns out to be true
(True) you don't need a reason
It's easy believing
When love turns out to be true
