He's home again from another day
She smiles at him as he walks through the door
She wonders if it will be okay
It's hard for her when he doesn't respond
He says babe you look a mess
You look dowdy in that dress
It's just not like it used to be
Then she says...
I may not be a lady
But I'm all woman
From Monday to Sunday I work harder than you know
I'm no classy lady
But I'm all woman
And the woman needs a little love to make her strong
You're not the only one
She stands there and lets the tears flow
Tears that she's been holding back so long
She wonders where did all the loving go
The love they used to share when they were strong
She says yes I look a mess
But I don't love you any less

I thought you always thought enough of me

To always be impressed

I may not be a lady

But I'm all woman

From Monday to Sunday I work my fingers to the bone

I'm no classy lady

But I'm all woman

This woman needs a little love to make her strong

You're not the only one

He holds her and hangs his head in shame

He doesn't see her like he used to do

He's too wrapped up in working for his pay

He hasn't seen the pain he's put her through

Attention that he paid

Just vanished in the haze

He remembers how it used to be

When he used to say

You'll always be a lady

'Cos you're all woman

From Monday to Sunday I love you much more than you know

You're a classy lady

'Cos you're all woman

This woman needs a loving man to keep her warm

You're not the only one

You're a classy lady

'Cos you're all woman

So sweet the love that used to be

So sweet the love that used to be

We can be sweet again...
