With my heart and soul

With my heart I give you everything Everything you ever need, everything you need to be strong
In my mind I can justify why I never tell a lie
'Cos you're the only one that I want, that I want, I want

Oh my darling what we have is something good and something true
There's no other in my life could ever take the place of you
I do my best to make you happy with everything I say and do
And you know I want you with me every minute every second too

With every passing day I'll tell you
And with every passing moment I will say

With my heart I give you everything Everything you ever need, everything you need to be strong
In my mind I can justify why I never tell a lie
'Cos you're the only one that I want, that I want, I want

Tell me baby can I love you 'till the life runs out of me I couldn't love nobody else 'cos you're the only thing I see Take my mind take my body and don't you ever ever stop
'Cos there's no love we can discover that is bigger than the one we've got

With every passing day I'll tell you
And with every passing moment I will say

With my heart I give you everything Everything you ever need, everything you need to be strong
In my mind I can justify why I never tell a lie
'Cos you're the only one that I want, that I want, that I want

Make a move Baby baby baby
That I want

With my heart I give you everything Everything you ever need, everything you need to be strong
In my mind I can justify why I never tell a lie
'Cos you're the only one that I want, that I want

With my heart and soul
