(l. stansfield/aska)

How much hurt can we take

When it's cold outside all I can do is hide and pray for better times

Oh how I need a friend to wipe the tears from my eyes

Love is hard to find in somewhere so unkind

When it's been left here behind

There is a place somewhere and if you'll lead me there

Then we can open our eyes

Chorus

So take me away

So far, so far away

Oh, won't you take me to a better day

Take me away

(japanese lyric)

Oh, take me away

(japanese lyric)

It's easy just hold me in your arms

'cause when the world is upside down

We can bring it round

How much hurt can we take

How much hurt can we take

It seems that everywhere although we tried to care

We're just not taking the time

When all we communicate is full of greed and hate

It's time to open our eyes

Chorus

(japanese lyric)

We can bring it round

(japanese lyric)

We can bring it round

(japanese lyric)

There is a place somewhere and if you lead me there

Then we can open our eyes
Then we can open our eyes

(repeat chorus to fade out)
