There was I
Taking every step for you
There was I
Taking every breath for you
And all the time you were with her

I loved you
I spurred you on
Never wanting for myself
Adored you for what I don't know

'Cos you were loving someone else
And now you're spitting in my face
Telling me that someone else
Has taken my place

There was I
Taking every step for you
There was I
Taking every breath for you
And all the time you were with her

Important
Oh, how important you were to me
Eternal
That's what I thought our love would be

But now you're spitting in my face
Telling me that someone else
Has taken my place

There was I
Taking every step for you
There was I
Taking every breath for you
And all the time you were with her

And now you're spitting in my face
Telling me that someone else
Has taken my place

There was I

Taking every step for you
There was I
Taking every breath for you
And all the time you were with her

There was I
Taking every step for you
There was I
Taking every breath for you
And all the time you were with her

There was I
Taking every step for you
There was I
Taking every breath for you
And all the time you were with her
