You can have all my things
I'm setting sail
Don't know where I'll go
It'll be far away
You'll know when I'll get there
You'll see me smile
Might take a while, but I'll smile

You can take all these friends
Cause I'm traveling alone
They are wonderful
So look after them well
Each one's different as you'll learn in time
I'm so proud of these friends of mine

You can take my TV
Cause I'm looking elsewhere
I don't quit know where
But it'll be no-where here
I'll take me forward
Not two steps back
I'm done with looking back

You can take all these friends
Cause I'm traveling alone
They are wonderful
So look after them well
Each one is different as you'll learn in time
I'm so proud of these friends of mine

New beginnings cure that ending
Surfacing a smile
The darkness is back there with no warning
You shall fear no more
