You said that you still loved me

Never once believed your eyes

You found a way to touch me

But still inside you're filled with lies

I never said I need to love you

But still you know I do

I need you here to feel this moment

My heart depends on you

But my love I can't decide so please

My love is in your hands

Just touch my heart you'll see

Baby please

Chorus:

A day in my life without you

Keep your love line close to me

A day in my life without you

Give me your love like it used to be

Those times you caught me crying

You never tried to understand

I need to have you near me

Baby you need to hold my hand

Don't ever think I'd fall to pieces
You know my hearts too strong
But deep inside I know I love you
With you is where I belong
But my love I can't decide so please
My love is in your hands
Touch my heart you'll see
Baby please
Chorus (4x)
