You won't believe me, you'll think it's strange
We will try to tell what I feel
That I still need you after all the things I've done
It had to happen when I need a change
I couldn't keep my life standing still
And keep wondering how the world might seem on my own

And after all, yes I am ashamed
Cause I'm the only one you can blame
And I regret the day that I said
I don't need you

Chorus:

Time passes by, and I cannot deny, I still love you No reason to pretend I lost a lover and friend, that much is true

And now my life without you is just not the same Sometimes I dream that your still with me
But when morning comes I'm alone if only you could see
I'm truly sorry cause I pushed you away
I didn't mean to hurt you but still Now I'm faced with lonely days as each one comes along

And after all, yes I am ashamed
Cause I'm the only one you can blame
And I regret the day that I said
I don't need you

(Chorus 2x)

Time passes by...

(Chorus 2x)
