look away from my window
look away from my door
i fear my dear it's all to clear and the paper heart's been torn can't you stay through the night please can't we pray on our knees to keep us calm right where we belong in a fortress of pine trees

chorus:
the wind sighs button up now don't look behind, keep your vows let the moon cry and the bricks to crumble down i won't be found, i won't be found, i won't be found, i won't be found out can't explain what im feeling but i came this far to take your hand help you understand why im always wanting more

iv'e not been found, iv'e not been found, iv'e not been found, iv'e not been found out,

i won't leave
i can't feel nothing
anyways anymore
anyways anymore

i will be found, i will be found, i will be found, i will be found out
