The night has to come
This much I know
As the light fades out
The wind begins to blow
And I am alone and will forever be
Just me, just me, just me

The silence full of everything
The silence full of truth
Life is happening
Oh oh age and youth
If I could love you my way
Then that's all I can do
And I do, and I do, I do

The past is behind me
The future don't exist
The night is inside of me
And I must live with it

And there's a longing inside me
Big as the ocean
'Bout to carry me away
And wash me over clean
And I see it in my dreams
And I know that it's coming
But when, oh when, oh when

'Cause the past is behind me
The future don't exist
The night is inside of me
And I must live with it

And don't you think I know by now
Everything I'm supposed to do
When all the wisdom is up and down

I open up and let it though

'Cause the past is behind me

The future don't exist

The night is inside of me

And I must live with it

The light has to come

This much I know

As the city wakes up

The sky begins to glow

And still I am alone

But I'm never lonely

'Cause it's me, just me, just me

And the past is behind me

The future don't exist

The light is inside of me

And I must live with it

Oh and I must live with it

Oh now and I must live with it
