"Somebody Somewhere"

Wake up let's go for a ride
Somebody somewhere
Cries out from the inside
Of my mind
We've got the rest of our lives
To live for the moment
And watch all the good times
Come back again
Hooked by the drug of your lives
I'll drown in the water
That flows down from your eyes

To my lips
Someone just pulled me aside
I wait for a warning
But it's only your pride
That sounds in my ears
Yeah it's alright
So when you feel my pain
You can tell me just the same
That it's alright
Repeat Chorus...
