I hit the city by three
And the bottle by four
I'm thinkin' about the shit that I pulled the night before
And by the party at midnight
Everything is cool again
'Cuz you'll be back with me then
You'll be back with me then

I'm carryin' the weight, the weight of the world
That doesn't wanna wait for me
But It spins me all around
And then it spits me out
Recycled like a Christmas tree
You pick me up, when no one would Convince me baby its all good
We're doin' it again, the way you always could
And now everything is understood

I never had a girl like this

I hit the city by three
And the bottle by four
I'm thinkin' about the shit
That I pulled the night before
And by the party at midnight
Everything is cool again
'Cuz you'll be back with me then

And so walls are closin' in
Its closin' time again
I see it through my champagne glasses
Terrifyin' how the time is fallin' down
But at least we're sittin' in first class

Never wanna feel like this

I hit the city by three
And the bottle by four
I'm thinkin' about the shit
That I pulled the night before
And by the party at midnight
Everything is cool again

'Cuz you'll be back with me then

I'm carryin' the weight of the world
That doesn't wanna wait for me
I'm carryin' the weight of the world
You're carryin' me

I never had a girl like this

I hit the bottle by six
And another cigarette
I probably do things that I know I should regret
And by the party at midnight
Everything is cool again
'Cuz you'll be back with me then
You'll be back with me then
You'll be back with me then
'Cuz you'll be back with me then
