If I'm not important why's the only time that you phone me when your boyfriend's away and you're calling to say that you're lonely

You've been lying to people you knew since you left the womb thought it wouldn't, but then it happened to me right away I loved your eyes and you loved my mouth stole a bunch of your parents' air-miles and heading south

as long as it didn't come off the street it was stuff you allowed me to eat we had a good time then it was more than I thought it would be now, when it felt right it felt kinda wrong you simply wanted, we did so I now know, when you lie, your eyebrows raise a little bit I'm gonna put the donkey right where the boss told me to I don't believe, it's tough, I know, I shouldn't be C.G.I.T. [...]

that time thought i was the only guy that you did this with then I found out I was a couple down on your favorites list

*I thought that there must be one too cause you [...] when I see you I'm gonna take that as a perfect cue to leave I guess it's as good as it could have been
