My big brother said
If I weren't so skinny
I'd be off the couch
And my phone would start ringing

Hey, when you're
Stacked like that, stacked like that
Stacked like that, stacked like that
You know you can't go wrong

My soccer coach said
If I wasn't so limited
I'd be on the pros
And all the girls would be into me

Hey, when you're
Stacked like that, stacked like that
Stacked like that, stacked like that
You know you can't go wrong

When you're
Stacked like that
You know you can't go wrong
