You better stop and think what you're sayin'
You'd better hold on, make sure you're sold on
Letting me go
(Letting me go)
Make sure you know what you wanna surpass

You think because your heart's flying high now
He won't pursue you that he's gonna leave ya
Don't be mislead
(Don't be mislead)
Think with your head and not with your heart

Better use your head, just hold on baby
Better turn around what you're sayin'
Better use your head before it's too late and I'm gone
Better use your head to help you
You will never find another love
Like me your whole life through

Hey baby, use your head
Believe in me, use your head
And you will see he's only using you
So use your head

I know I'm not the one who should tell you
You think I'm lyin', you think I'm tryin'
Hard to hold on
(Hard to hold on)
Putting you on to fool with your mind

But he's been all over the town tellin' people
He's gonna get you and he will not let you
Go where he's been
(Go where he's been)
Ready for you when he leaves you behind

Better use your head, just hold on baby
Better turn around what you're sayin'
Better use your head before it's too late and I'm gone
Better use your head to help you
You will never find another love
Like me your whole life through

Hey baby, use your head
Believe in me, use your head
And you will see he's only using you
So use your head, why don't you just use your head

Hey, ahh, just for a minute
Better turn around what you're sayin'
Better use your head before it's too late and I'm gone
