Don't you wanna dive on in,
Yeah the water feels right
Dancing on the edge of the love
You're a beautiful sight

So why're you still standing there in the half moonlight
Come on, baby, give me a little more you
Come on, baby, give me a little more you

Your batting those baby blues and, honey I swear
The way you got me needing you girl, it just ain't fair
You've given me a little bit yeah, but don't stop there

Come on, baby, give me a little more you
Come on, baby, give me a little more you

My hearts calling for you
I know I never can get enough
Don't hold back one bit of your love
Strong and steady for you I'm all ready

Come on, baby, give me a little more you
Come on, baby, give me a little more you

You're teasing me with a touch and the whole world shakes
Keep holding that river back and the levee may break
There's only so much that this ol' boy can take

Come on, baby, give me a little more you
Come on, baby, give me a little more you
