You got someone here
Wants to make it alright
Someone who loves you
More than life right here

You got willing arms
That'll hold you tight
A hand to lead you on
Through the night right here

I know your heart
Can get all tangled up inside
But don't you keep it to yourself

When your long day is over
And you can barely drag your feet
The weight of the world is on your shoulders
I know what you need, bring it on home to me

You know I know you
Like the back of my hand
But did you know I'm gonna do
All that I can right here?

I'm gonna lie with you
Till you fall asleep
When the morning comes
I'm still gonna be right here, oh yes I am

So take your worries
And just drop them at the door
Baby leave it all behind

When your long day is over
And you can barely drag your feet
The weight of the world is on your shoulders
I know what you need, bring it on home to me

Baby let me be your safe harbor
Don't let the water come and carry you away

When your long day is over

And you can barely drag your feet
The weight of the world is on your shoulders
I know what you need, bring it on home to me

Oh bring it on home
Yeah bring it on home to me
Home to me
Oh bring it on, bring it on
Home to me

You got someone here
Wants to make it alright
Someone who loves you
