Drinkin' was forbidden in my Christian country home
I learned to play the flattop on them good ol' Gospel songs

Then I heard about the barrooms just across the Georgia line
Where a boy could make a livin' playin' guitar late at night

Had to learn about the ladies, too young to understand Why the young girls fall in love with the boys in the band
When the boys turn to music, the girls just turn away
To some other guitar picker in some other late night place

Yeah, I held on to my music, I let the ladies walk away Took my songs and dreams to Nashville then I moved on to L.A.
Up to New York City all across the USA
I lost so much of me but there's enough of me to say that

My home's in Alabama, no matter where I lay my head My home's in Alabama, Southern born and Southern bred

I'll speak my Southern English just as natural as I please
I'm in the heart of Dixie, Dixie's in the heart of me
And someday when I make it, when love finds a way Somewhere high on Lookout Mountain I'll just smile with pride and say

That my home's in Alabama, no matter where I lay my head
My home's in Alabama, Southern born and Southern
bred
Southern born and Southern bred
Southern born and Southern bred

I'm Southern born and Southern bred
