You're gonna love me, baby
You're gonna wake up in another life
There will be tears, baby
And I won't be around to see you cry

Yeah, when you're heart is sober
Yeah, when the pieces all fall into place
Yeah, when the light comes on
And it's far too late
You're gonna love me, baby

You're gonna hate me, baby
You're gonna curse the day that we met
Down to the core, baby
You're gonna feel that sting of regret

Yeah, when you're empty-handed
Yeah, when your dream is setting like the sun
Yeah, when the ink is dry
And the deal is done
You're gonna hate me, baby
You're gonna miss me, baby
You're gonna want what you could've had Yeah, you'll have somethin' baby
But you're gonna want something more than that

Yeah, when the pain comes calling
Yeah, when you're watching, see me moving on Yeah, when you find the choices that you made were wrong
You're gonna miss me, baby

You're gonna hate me, baby
You're gonna love me, you're gonna love me
You're gonna hate me
When the light comes on, yeah
You'll see that I'm gone
You're gonna wake up and you're gonna love me
