[intro:]

love, love, love.

ooh... love

hmmm..

[verse 1:]

said you from the hood
and that's all you know when your homies call then its time to go
live a life of crime
that's your only grind
and you know it's wrong but the money's right praying for the day to come when all your hustling days are done and find a girl and fall in love a special someone that you know you can trust

but you ain't got time
that's you way of life and you know that one day you'll pay the price, oh hope that you choose life over death and
live your dream
don't learn the lesson
hope you see that someone loves you
changing life
never tried to hurt you major heartache won't desert you don't you think you're ever asking too much

[chorus:]

all you need is love, love, love
all you ever need is love, love, love and it's good to be in love, love ,love
now a new life has begun

and sometimes it may get rough but i promise i'll be there to give you all my love

all i want you to see is misery loves company and all your friends they ain't your friend 'less something go wrong
who can you depend on
when you cry out
someone save me
they'll be looking at you like you're crazy
how much love will you have for the hood
when they ain't have your back like they said they would

(you need to see who's on your side) and who wants a better life for you (think with your head not with your pride) deep down you really know the truth (nobody wants to see you cry) i know just what you can do, oh cause it can be good (cause it can be good)
or it can be bad

[chorus 2:]

and sometimes it gets rough

[bridge:]

life is only as hard
and you make it
if you are in control,
you can break it
you gotta know that your life is worth saving
trust me in your heart

(see i know times get rough, i do

and you think that all thing can put you down
but if you look up,
you can get up
trust in yourself
and i promise it will be okay, i promise
all you need is love...)

[chorus 3:]

what you need is love, love, love
and it's good to be in love, ooh love and a new life has begun
i promise i'll be there to give you all my love, love, love
and it's good to be in love, ooh love, ooh love
