[talking intro]

[verse 1 - big pooh]

im shy, timid, slow on the draw ignore em when they close, love em from afar star, naww thats not on my mind, im on a mission lookin for the one im tryna find but i get caught living life by the rhyme living life on the grind living like I, be 20-something on my birthday its a catch 22 i want a girl to support me, call me up when im out on the road come to a couple shows, critique a nigga's flow well yes no maybe so, thats what im lookin for Tay i just dont know so, imma be a bachelor big pooh thing -- smooth oper-a-torr the next time that im in for sure, ill probly fall to the hands of the lord..

[hook]

im talkin bout Keisha, and Teesha, and Toya, and Stacy Alisha, Renee, and Mercedes man, i love ladies man (get you in my arms tonight) they be callin and writin and emailin and paging tryna front but i just cant take it man i love ladies man

[verse 2 - phonte]

yo, how could i hate em when i want em so much thats the obstacle keep my feelings inside thats what i strive to do but let me confirm, Tigolo is in love, i aint gon lie to you in Miami, Carter be giving me some certain glances, cuz we met under some real wide circumstances, but it was worth the chances im like -?- in the Matrix, soon hopefully she be the one that there aint no replacing and done fuck my head up, like bitches with braces thinking bout her warm hugs, soft kisses and embraces and i aint done feeling it cuz Tigolo done had showdowns with hoes in O-Town, and Slum Villages, and it dont compare to you, point blank period you are the midnight star thats got me curious seriously thinking bout our future this is how it must be

[hook]

now some of you ladies are not complying, you need to just come clean, please stop ya lying you probly wouldnt even fuck with me if not for rhymin i mean it aint brain surgery or rocket science, you lookin like "ooh girl-i just gotta try him" thinking imma buy you rocks and diamonds cuz you aint had a man since the days of Stop The Violence and now we at court going the Scotts and Irish slow it down girl - pump ya brakes stop ya whining, some girls do got the proper timing stay off a nigga back and its not for climbing im, indebted to ya life forever who held a nigga down till his dough got better for that job bought shirt shoes tie and sweater, expressed all her love in a 4 page letter my god, ill never forget her (so let em know)
