She's got her jaws just flappin' in high gear
Got that phone glued to her ear
She's talkin', man, she's talkin'
Can't call anytime, she's home
I know she's on the phone

An' I told my wife she's gonna wreck my home
She just won't leave that phone alone
She's talkin', man, she's talkin'
Because any time she's home
I know she's on the phone

She said, "Girl, you ain't never gonna believe this Oh, no honey, look-a-here"
Man, she can talk, man, she's talkin'
Because anytime she's home
I just know she's on the phone

Sometime she says, "Uh-huh, uh-uh, no, yeah?"
An' she's just talking, man, she's talkin'
Because anytime she's home
I know she's on the phone

An' she said, "Talkin' on the phone, ain't all I do
'Cause a lot of times I'm listenin' too"
She's talkin', man, she's talkin'
Because anytime she's home
I just know she's on the phone

She's a talkin', talkin', talkin'
Talk, talkin', talkin', talk
Anytime she's home
I know she's on the phone

She's just talkin', man, she's talkin'
Because anytime she's home
I know she's on the phone
