Well y'all can move if ya want
Picture me just a kid once again
Innocent in this world full of sin
A time took a pull pop's head took a spin
Hand came crashin up the side of my chin
A lesson that i learned from him
Rarely rememberin him
Even hard to concider him friend
My moms tried to make these ends
We be poor eviction notice on the door
Will it come to an end
Pimple head kid in a Pope cardigan
Hoping the shots don't bust again
Cuz i've done lost 2 friends
In the parking lot
Now their mom hates me and hip hop
Still she moves on
Can fathom the loss of your first born
Some kids got a deal with the devil sworn
They missed a small print then, with the blink...
Yo
I'm a get it my way, that's all I wanna do
I'm reaching for the skyline, where dreams come true
If you came here to party, that's all I wanna do
Just reach for the skyline where dreams come true
It was a Kodac moment
When I saw these three people, beat this man honest
Knew the cops would not be on it
Survival of the fittest, now these crew adapt Blue and outfit in it
Attitudes are well screwed and wanna deal with it
Now mommas crying and babies dying
Earfuls of dudes saying that who's you
Pissed off cause your teen years are through
Newborns 19, you 42
When you get out, you considered old school
And old dogs don't want no new rules
Picture a new rapper disrespecting Grand Master
Naw, that can't happen
Time to get back in
You call up your soldiers trying to make moves again

You're setting up shop but your on claimed turf man
I'm a get it my way, that's all I wanna do
I'm reaching for the skyline, where dreams come true
If you came here to party, that's all I wanna do
Just reach for the skyline where dreams come true
It's still a snap shot in time
When the world knew me and you alinged
Ya, we talked, had dinner
Did all the things that you do in a firendship
A Brass Rail, two GM's you ale
Three chickes, contract signed, chart rise
My position is couldn't be better
For a kid in a Sears sweater
Piss coat, uff Tims, no change then
Straight power moves
But individuals make individual moves
One overseas other VP
One got his own, now it's just me but it's home
New blood, new heart, but they ain't birth it
And nergers make 'em nervous
But it's the team so it's worth it
Mad work, mad clubs, got crunk y'all
On tour almost got into two brawls
It's straight love y'all but i moved on
It's Greenhouse, green baggie and a gren lawn
I'll see y'all when i see y'all
I'm a get it my way, that's all I wanna do
I'm reaching for the skyline, where dreams come true
If you came here to party, that's all I wanna do
Just reach for the skyline where dreams come true
I'm a get it my way, that's all I wanna do
I'm reaching for the skyline, where dreams come true
Just reach for the skyline where dreams come true
