P. Barrere, F. Tackett

outside my hotel window, my eyes they spy the rails while lost in the horizon, the mystic balley trail southwestern transportation tighten up the cotton belt those santa fe steamers, hot 'nuff to make me melt give me a big train... a big train rollin' all night long put me on the track that will take me back to you give me a big train.. big train' rollin' - loco mo got some loco motion
got some loco mo
got some loco motives I'm dyin' to try on you boring days... frantic nights sittin' round waitin' for delayed flights meters runnin' in brand new shoes sordid rhythms rockin' black and blues hometown drama, highway trauma phone bill's got at least one comma achin' skull at the end of my rope give me some money, send me some hope give me a big train... all night long
give me a big train.. big train' rollin' - loco mo
got some loco mo
steel wheel's singin' such a lonesome song engines whinin' been gone too long boiler burnin' - 'bout to burst like a drownin' man, I'm dyin' of thirst when you hear the whistle moan means the southern pacific is bringing me home hey girl, get your new dress on big train's rollin' in at dawn oh baby don't you cry no more big train's a rollin' up to your door give me a big train... a big train rollin' all night long
give me a big train.. big train' rollin' - loco mo
got some loco mo
