Take advantage of the season
To take off your overcoat
The spirits will lift off those young men you provoke
But I'll be laughing, knowing I will take you home

There ain't no lover like the one I've got
Ain't no lover like the one I've got
She and I have a brand new start
I gotta give all my love

All this time they had me thinking
Love's a boat that's slowly sinking
But you made the claim
Taking chances, embracing the change
I count my blessings knowing you will take me home

There ain't no lover like the one I've got
Ain't no lover like the one I've got
She and I have a brand new start
I gotta give all my love

I got time to hold my own
What's a day when the years are on their way
I gotta say

There ain't no lover like the one I've got
Ain't no lover like the one I've got
She and I have a brand new start
I gotta give all my love
