

Little Joy "Play The Part"

Spending time
Convinced that it's mine with her
Just to keep her out of mind

Still I'll take care to see
Which way the wind blows
Notice how her hair curls

Pay no mind to the clown
Who sits to your side
Content to yield despite pride

He is a fool to assume
You'd spare a thought
I'm a thief who's just been caught
And I don't find it funny anymore

And so I won't play the part
I played before
Oh, no, not to you

I don't see you laughing anyway
And so I won't play a part
In your mistake, no way
Not unless you stay
