Ever wait a minute, look down and it's been a year?
Ever had a friend that said, it looks like rain again?
Ever see a spark, that asked you where to begin? Start it slow? Well, I won't. Just say anything...is this over?
Because I've said everything before I get one more good-bye...before I get one more goodnight...and it's over. Now...I'm moving closer to that dream of mine. I do it all because I'll never be content in my life. I wanna see the world. Have it all. Just say anything...is this over? Because I've said everything before I get one more good-bye...before I get one more goodnight...and it's over.
