Come undone
Before I defeat this
I need a remix
I don't want to miss this distance
I don't want to diss this
Is this fall from grace a necessity?
Dissatisfied with this present state
Could this page reveal a casualty?
It's not just you who's losing sleep these days
I don't want to miss this distance
I don't want to diss this
Persistent scouring
Distorts this design
Insist on salvaging
Persistent scouring
Distorts this design
Insists, it sways
It pulls in ways I'll never define
Am I up for what it takes?
Breathing shorts out
And through all this
All these days, these weeks, these hours stack high
