

Choke "Signing Off"

force yourself another meaning you're lost but not forgotten challenged by another side search for clarity
denied, your will's been broken your words mean more not spoken maybe it ought to be said fractured unity

made a break now you are untied settled downs
constant images
rushing through and it's so hard
every goal replaced
this crushing blow

set it up
another scene
the angle seems legitimate you're signing off high
