laid awake all night preoccupied rummaging through stacks of dreams that have been pushed aside so it seems in every case all that i find is expired aspirations built to lies so i complain
again another miss, i never gain i've waiting for so long i push to follow through, it never seems to show that way
in myself, tired of this slow pace promised everything
force fed shit that i will eat i'll be naÃƒfÃ,Ã,Ã~ve
just this last time
stuffed in my face
wake up every day
find myself int he same place
my hope defaced
it serves me right
everyday i'm fed the same
cannot complete
what's in the way
why can't i sleep
cannot be optimistic
what will it take
cannot complete
everyday i feel the sand and nothing's ever going to take my dignity
