Whoa-whoa-whoa
Whoa, whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa

In the lonely night I wake up to find Someone else's boy always on my mind
But he doesn't know how much I really love him so
Whoa, whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa

Though it isn't right when I dream like this
I long to hold him tight and to taste his kiss
Then I wake to find he's someone else's boy, not mine

Whenever I see them together
It breaks my poor heart in two
I know that I should forget him
'Cause he's her guy, what can I do?
Whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa

How I hope and pray to the Lord above
To send me down a boy, one that I can love
Who'll be mine alone and not someone else's boy

Whenever I see them together
It breaks my poor heart in two
I know that I should forget him
'Cause he's her guy, what can I do?
Whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa

How I hope and pray to the Lord above
To send me down a boy, one that I can love
Who'll be mine alone and not someone else's boy
Whoa-whoa-whoa
Whoa, whoa-whoa-whoa-whoa
