RELENTLESS 2

WRITERS BEEB BIRTLES, BILL CUOMO, RON KRASINSKI

She wouldn't think of letting go, she'd rather cramp your style, 'cause when she wants she'll let you know, the truth is all the while, you're heading for trouble, trouble, trouble and trouble like you've never seen before, think this is love you're seeing double, you better get out of here, relentless She only thinks to please herself, she's got a one track mind, another trophy on the shelf, if this is love you're blind, you're heading for trouble, trouble, trouble like you've never seen before, think this is love you're seeing double, you better get out of here ... You better run, you better come to your senses, she'll never give up 'til she wraps you around, around, around ... think you're the one, don't leave yourself defenseless, 'cause she will bring you down, relentless. guitar solo She never waits for you to call, always the first to move, no need to ask, she takes it all, she's got a point to prove, she's nothing but trouble, trouble, trouble ... like you've never seen
better get out of here ... You better run, you better come to your senses, she'll never give up 'til she wraps
you around, around, around... think you're the one,
you down, relentless. She doesn't ask, she takes it all, relentless ... she'll bring you down, she'll make you fall, relentless ...
