RELENTLESS

WRITERS GRAHAM GOBLE, SPENCER PROFFER

Friday night on a one-way street, cold, damp, and dark but you could still feel the heat, movin' through the shadows at the speed of light, (I said) you know I've just run away from home, and I'm tired of bein' out here all alone, let's get connected, play on a winning team. I am relentless with desire to get to you, relentless and there's fire in everything I do, passion in my soul, something that I can't control, I'm gonna be relentless. We took the lift to the second floor, 'Do not disturb' hangin' on the door, inside her room, I turned into someone new, (I said) why don't you tell me what you got on your mind, I'll stick around, I've got nothin' but time, just take the lead, I'm ready to go with you. I am relentless with desire to get to you, relentless and there's fire in everything I do, passion in my soul, something that I can't control. She kept him guessing half of the night, he was achin', hoping inside that when they were done, they'd become a force of one.
Saturday night on a one-way street, hot city lights but we're immune to the heat, I was taken from the shadows by the eyes of light. I am relentless with desire to get to you, relentless and there's fire in everything I do, passion in my soul, something that I can't control, I am relentless with desire to get to you, relentless and there's fire in everything I do, passion in my soul, something that I can't control, (passion in my soul) (outa control) (filled with desire) (I'm on fire and I'm just gonna be relentless)
