We used to hang around and used to be in town almost everyday

I used to be a man, you used to understand me in every way

But now you don't hardly know me, I've changed and I'm different now

Oh, you don't even know me, I've changed and I'm different now

Used to be in school, together played the fool but I let it go

Now I'm on the street and if we should ever meet I'd let you know

How I've changed and I'm different, changed and different now, no, no

No, you wouldn't even know me, I've changed and I'm different now

You don't know but I need it so and it's breakin' me down

The endless motels they never make me feel at home

The way I wanna feel, pretty cool sax solo we used to hang around

And used to be in town almost everyday, I used to be a man

And you used to understand me in every way

Now you don't hardly know me, I've changed and different now

Ah, look at me, you wouldn't even know me, no, no, no, no

Changed and I'm different, changed and I'm different now

Changed and I'm different, changed and I'm different now

Changed and I'm different, changed and I'm different now

Changed and I'm different, changed and I'm different now

Oh, it's just the B side now
