Prelude by David Briggs Song by Graham Goble
It's the call of the hills it's the way of the wind it's your heavenly smile that's taken me in seekers search for the truth lovers hide in the night some get carried away on an endless flight
It's a hard life
we just gotta learn to understand that we'll be alright
if we lend everybody here a helping hand People fight in our wars on the world where we live it's a heavenly cause too much to forgive some get more than they need some need more than they get other watch while they bleed don't remember they met Chorus

When will it end where to begin we're left alone to learn Teachers teach in our schools 'bout the way we should be they make all the rules for them it's easy to see we'll follow our hearts we'll run with the tide we'll stay far apart
'til we're on the same side
It's a hard life
we've just gotta learn to understand
if we help everybody here
it's a hard life

we just gotta lend everybody here a helping hand When will it ever end just to begin again it's such a hard life
