I can feel it floating away inch by inch, day by day Love boat set itself free Castaway, slipping out to sea

I can feel it coming adrift
Even a blind man could see the rift
From an ocean liner
To a Chinese junk
There ain't been a ship that can't be sunk

I used to dream it could last forever
But pipedreams never come true I'd be foolin' myself if I never thought something like this couldn't happen to you

I said baby
You've got a man on your mind
You've got a weight on your shoulders
How you ever gonna find the words to say goodbye?

You don't know just what you got till it's gone
I guess you heard that a lot but it's true
It's not just a game
You can't change your life by changing your name

It's not something you can hide away Sooner or later it starts to show It's written on your face you've been betrayed Do you really believe that I don't know?

I said baby

You've got a man on your mind
You've got a weight on your shoulders
How you ever gonna find
the words to say (goodbye)?

He's already fallen so it's no use to fight
And if he starts callin' let him know you're with me for the rest of the night

(instrumental)

Ooh I said baby
You've got a man on your mind
(Got a man on your mind)
You've got a weight on your shoulders
How you ever gonna find
the words to say goodbye?

Baby (Please listen to me baby)
You've got a man on your mind
(Gotta get that man off your mind)
You've got a weight on your shoulders
How you ever gonna find
the words to say goodbye?

Baby (ooh baby baby baby)
You've got a man on your mind
(You got that man on your mind)
You've got a weight on your shoulders
How you ever gonna find
the words to say goodbye?
