You can't keep the tournament waiting!
Mushik & Son.. can you hold?
Please hold, can you hold?
It's just as the plant foretold
Just a minute
It's business like who'd have ever guessed.
Mushnik & Son, that was me!
Please wait, that was me..
The business is doing great..
On channel three!
So why am I feeling so depressed?

Seven thousand boutonnières?
Please, i've only got two ears!
Hollyhocks are hardier,
Which ones would your wife prefer?
Were you waiting long?
I'm sorry sir!

Seymour, that reporter-
She wants another interview
Said to bring the plant with you
Audrey, it's that new account
Sorry, that's the right amount
Daisies only come in white
Sir, I'm too worn out to fight
Sorry, those are out of stock
Seymour! Look! It's six o'clock!
Call back in the morning, will you?
Call back in the morning, won't you?
Call back in the morning, can you?
Call back in the morning, thank you!
Call back in the morning!
