I recall I called you up to ask you all my questions and you replied you don't know why I can't take rejection
When I'm alone in company, and you're there in my sights
you smother me in mystery one more time.
[Chorus:]
Woman, woman, woman, womankind Everyday you seem to blow my mind Take a look at me and you will find Everyday I love you more Everyday I want you more.
So sweetly you persist in kind, so darkly and mysterious can't you see you must be blind, to not see I'm deleirious
Fortunately you are not, a desperate proclaimer
That would be the worst thing on my mind.
[Chorus]
It's not the same without you It's essential what you bring You are deep within all time and space above
I just can't live without you, you're my oxygen supply
I'd drift deadly through my life without your love.
[Chorus]
