There's a chain of tears
That's been-a holdin' me here
'Cause you know
How much I hate to see you cry

Well, before I go
I just wanna let you know
This is the last time
That you hear me say goodbye

Baby, just cry, cry on
Well, I've done all I can to hold on
You're only gonna find me gone
So, baby, cry on, baby, cry on

Every time before
When I was headed for the door
Your misty eyes
Would always make me stay

This hurtin' you
Is somethin' I never wanna do
But you know
You just can't keep me here this way

So, baby, just cry, cry on Yeah, well, I've done all I can to hold on
You're only gonna find me gone
So, baby, cry on, baby, cry on

Baby, just cry, cry on
Well, I've done all I can to hold on
You're only gonna find me gone
So, baby, cry on, baby, cry on

You know you're only gonna find me gone
So, baby, cry on, baby, cry on

And you can just cry on Yeah, yeah, you can just cry on
