Me, me, me, me
Ohhh
Me, me, me, me

I was cruising down the ave
Thirty on the dash
I saw this dude
And I couldn't help but look back
Put it in reverse
Not even thinkin bout who I'm gonna hurt
Noo..
Said I like what I see
Dunno what it is but you got what I need
And it didn't even dawn on me
What the consequences might be
Was it just my intentions
Got a man that I never seem to mention
And I tell myself this is for his protection
To erase this deception
I ain't tryna lose my man
But this dude got all of my attention
And it's hard enough to show my affection
Yes, I know I'm going in the wrong direction
No, this wasn't in my plans

You don't deserve someone like me
Cause I never gave you what you need
I should walk away and let you be Cause you don't deserve someone like me, me, me, me
Like me, me, me, me
Ohhh me, me, me, me
Like me, me, me, me

It was just one kiss
But the way you did it made me think of your lips
Was not expectin to feel like this
It was someone saying how you lived
Ohh and I should've went home
Couldn't stop myself cause he made me say oh-ooh
And the only thing I could see was myself sayin this isn't like me

And I gotta stop stressin that this dude is gonna say somethin
If you do, imma say I did nothin
Man, I hope that he don't be buggin
I ain't tryna lose my man
Don't know why I didn't be faithful
I ain't never been no angel
Now im forced to live with this label
This wasn't in my plans

You don't deserve someone like me
Cause I never gave you what you need
I should walk away and let you be (be)
Cause you don't deserve someone like me
I should've loved you more
I don't know what I was with him for One day I have to tell you the truth
Cause there ain't no excuse
I was with him when I should've been with you
Me, me, me, like me, me, me
Ooh me, me, me, like me, me, me
Ooh me, me, me, like me, me, me
Ooh me, me, me
Baby, you don't deserve (nooo)

You don't deserve someone like me
Cause I never gave you what you need
I should walk away and let you be
Cause you don't deserve someone like me
You don't deserve someone like me
